

Grand Chapitre St.Petersburg

13-16.10.2016

From Bailli Delegee Henri Everaars

Cher Confreres and Consoeurs, dear Friends,

This year the Bailliage national of Russia is celebrating its 15th Anniversary.

As in 2011, when the Bailliage celebrated its 10th Anniversary with a commemorative programme, including a gala-dinner and induction ceremony in the Golden Theater of Yusopov Palace, as well as the historical shooting of the canon on the walls of Peter and Paul Fortress, this time we will have prepared a special programme in St.Petersburg and an optional additional programme in Moscow.

In 2011 the Bailli Delegee of the United States, George Brown Jr, who was nominated as Inducting Officer by President Yam Atallah, and his charming wife, Elisabeth, with delegation came over to St. Petersburg. Furthermore we had Chaîne guests from all over the world, Singapore, Australia, South Africa, Libanon, Italy, Finland and other countries.

To celebrate our 15th Anniversary this year we welcome many Chaîne members and guests from all over the world.

An excellent programme has been prepared. The gala-dinner this time will take place in the Grand Hotel Europe, which celebrated this year its 170th Anniversary, in the historical Europe Restaurant Room.

For those guests who wish to continue their stay in Russia, an optional additional programme in Moscow has been organized.

We look forward to warmly welcoming you to St. Petersburg, one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

Viva La Chaîne!

Henri C.J.Everaars
Bailli Delegee of
The Bailliage national of Russia

Welcome to Charming St.Petersburg

Born out of Peter the Great's solitary vision of European sophistication amidst the former bogs, the city's awe-inspiring architectural splendour belies a turbulent history.

Pause at the cobblestone-covered tip of the Basil Island for breath-taking and imagination stimulating views of the Neva river and city. Admire the ornate iron-cast railing running along the Summer Gardens, stop at the monolithic effigy of Peter the Great - legendary statue of the Bronze Horseman, leave through the unique experience of traveling through an intricate network of rivers, canals, drawbridges and archways. Pause to take in the sites and sounds of Nevsky Prospect, the true Time's Square area of the city.

Your next destination is the renowned Hermitage and its Winter Palace with one the world's largest, oldest and most spectacular art collections.

On top of your initiation into the wealth of the historical and cultural heritage, St. Petersburg is famous for, visit St.-Isaac's Cathedral, surpassed in size only by St.-Paul's of London and St.-Peter's of Rome; and pay tribute to the remnants of the recently sanctified last Russian Czar and members of His family, lying in peace at Peter and Paul's Cathedral.

Add to the places of visits historical sights splendid Church on the Spilled Blood and the Yusupov Palace with its amazing history. Experience also the new Faberge museum and enjoy the world class ballet in the Marinsky Theatre.

And your familiarization with the city will be complete once only you have toured Royal residences in outskirts of St.Peterburg - Peterhof, Pushkin and Pavlovsk.

Optional tour to Moscow

16-18.10.2016

Moscow - metropolis

Moscow, a bustling metropolis, home to some 10 million people, is a study in paradox, where ancient monasteries stand alongside ultra-modern skyscrapers.

Explore the legendary Red Square with the ultimate symbol of Russia – St.-Basil's Cathedral. Adjacent to the Red Square lies the Kremlin, the true center of Russia's political, cultural and religious life, with two richest repositories of Imperial treasures – Armory Chamber - and 12th to 19th century jewelry, including the renowned Faberge eggs exhibit – the Diamond Fund.

A panoramic city tour will orient you to the city's diverse neighborhoods and cultural riches including a visit to Our Savior Cathedral, whose tragic and controversial fate parallels that of the country itself, the splendid 16th century New Maiden's Convent, enjoy breath taking view of Moscow city from the Sparrow Hills and a number of other essential sights.

To enrich your cultural experience within the city and surrounding area you may choose to visit the religious centre of Russia – Sergiev-Posad, the underground hiding place of Joseph Stalin – Stalin's Bunker, Russian Art collections on display at Tretyakov Gallery and Pushkin Fine Arts' Museum with a special aesthetic treat at the Impressionists' Wing. You may get the feel of the daily life of Moscow on a Metro Ride. Souvenir-hunters may indulge in their hobby at the huge Izmailovo Bazaar.
