Grand Chapitre International du Liban
Lebanon International Grand Chapitre
Beirut, April 21 - 24, 2017

On the occasion of the World Chaîne day on April 22, 2017, the Bailliage of Lebanon organizes its Grand Chapitre International from April 21 until April 24, 2017.

A l'occasion de la Journée Mondiale de la Chaîne le 22 avril 2017, Le Bailliage du Liban organise son Grand Chapitre International du 21 au 24 avril 2017.

Arlette Mabardi Bailli Déléguée Bailliage National du Liban et membre du Conseil magistral à Paris.

Dear Friends and Fellow members,

Welcome to Lebanon, the country of the cedars. The word LEBANON originally from Leben meaning «white», due to the perpetual snow covering its mountain peaks. One can marvel about this sunny corner of the world because of the variety of the countryside and the beautiful evergreen landscapes all year long, due to its pine and cedar forests. You will mainly appreciate its mild weather and benefit from activities in the sea, while still be able to ski on the summits. Land of contrast and harmony, both dynamic and passionate of farniente, it is not by chance that all visitors fall under its charm. Beirut the capital, rebuilt in the 90's, is a city that never sleeps, famous for its fabulous nightlife. Many gastronomic restaurants provide the gourmets with a fine dining experience. Famous Lebanese designers and main international brands will provide a luxurious art of living experience. We hope to have a wide audience at Grand Chapitre International du Liban. An interesting program awaits you. We will make your stay unforgettable.

Chers amis et Confrères,

Bienvenue au pays des Cèdres... Le mot LIBAN, dont l'étymologie vient de Leben et signifie «blanc», rappelle la blancheur de la neige qui couvre ses sommets. Le Liban est un petit pays ensoleillé aux paysages verdoyants tout le long de l'année grâce à ses forêts de cèdres et de pins, connu pour son doux climat qui permet à la fois de nager dans la mer et de skier sur les hauteurs enneigées du Mont Liban. Pays de contraste, à la fois bruyant et calme, il n'est pas étonnant que tous ses visiteurs tombent indéniablement sous son charme. Beyrouth la capitale, reconstruite dans les années 90, est une ville qui ne dort pas. Elle est réputée pour sa fabuleuse vie nocturne. Ses restaurants offrent aux gourmets une bonne expérience gustative. Les célèbres designers libanais, et les grandes marques internationales vous permettront d'expérimenter un luxueux art de vivre. Soyez nombreux à participer au Grand Chapitre International du Liban, un programme intéressant vous attend et nous nous chargeons de rendre votre séjour des plus mémorables.

Vive la Chaîne!

Beirut National Museum Musée National de Beyrouth

The National Museum of Lebanon was inaugurated in 1937. Museum visitors will discover a large collection of objects, ranging over a very long chronological period, from Prehistory to the 19th c. AD. In 1975, the National Museum closed its doors when the war broke out. The first protection measures were taken by hiding this inestimable treasure in concrete cases built around a wooden structure surrounding each object. Restoration works started in 1995 and the inauguration took place on November 25, 1997. Within the years the museum's collection had substantially increased, by the addition of artifacts found in recent excavations.

Le Musée National de Beyrouth a été inauguré en 1937. Les visiteurs peuvent y découvrir une vaste collection qui couvre une large période chronologique, de la préhistoire jusqu'au XIX^e siècle. En 1975, suite à la guerre, le musée a dû fermer ses portes. Des mesures de protection furent prises en cachant ces trésors inestimables dans des structures en béton armé bâties autour de boîtes en bois entourant chaque pièce. Les travaux de restauration débutèrent en 1995 et le musée fut rouvert le 25 novembre 1997. Avec les années, sa collection a substantiellement augmenté par l'ajout d'objets découverts durant les dernières excavations.

Byblos - A 7000 year-old city

Byblos - Vieille de 7000 ans

Byblos is famous for its ancient port, believed to be the oldest port in the world. It was used by the Phoenicians to ship their local wine and cedar wood, to the Pharaohs of Ancient Egypt. Another famous landmarks are Byblos citadel and Bronze Age ruins. Surrounding the citadel cobbled streets, sandstone villas with orange-gabled roofs, and lavish gardens studded with pink oleander trees. Byblos is the oldest continuously inhabited town in the world, as well as the birthplace of the modern alphabet. Many of its best-preserved sarcophagi and hieroglyphic vases are now in Beirut's National Museum. Taking a walk in the beautifully restored souk of Jbeil is a must to enjoy the stalls and boutique shops. Also tourists can enjoy sipping a cup of juice or coffee in this historical ambience.

L'ancien port de Byblos ou Jbeil, considéré comme le plus ancien port du monde fait la réputation de la cité . Il était utilisé par les Phéniciens pour transporter leurs vins et bois de cèdre aux pharaons de l'Egypte ancienne. D'autres monuments connus sont la citadelle de Byblos et les ruines de l'âge de bronze. Autour de la citadelle, des rues pavées, des villas en pierre de sable aux toits orange, et de somptueux jardins parsemés d'oléandres. Berceau de l'alphabet, Byblos est la plus ancienne ville habitée de manière ininterrompue dans le monde. La plupart de ses sarcophages et vases hiéroglyphiques les mieux conservés se trouvent au Musée national de Beyrouth. Une balade dans ses souks joliment restaurés est un must pour admirer ses boutiques artisanales et siroter un jus ou un café dans une ambiance hors du temps.
